

Mechanical/Project Engineer

Capital Engineering is a multi-discipline engineering firm focused on business within Alberta that undertakes all aspects of project development including:

- Feasibility and Scoping Studies
- Detailed Engineering
- Project Capital and Life Cycle Cost Estimates
- De-bottlenecking and Plant Optimizations
- Procurement and Expediting
- Project and Construction Management
- Shop and Field Inspections
- Commissioning and Start – up

We are looking for talented and energetic professionals with Canadian experience who want to become part of our innovative and dynamic team.

Description:

- Manage one or more assigned projects;
- Plan, organize and direct the engineering workforce;
- Manage the ongoing definition of the project scope of work through its different engineering Phases;
- Provide leadership in the planning, development, acceptance and delivery of engineering and project management deliverables;
- Responsible for presenting project decisions and recommendations to Principals.

Requirements:

- Minimum 5+ years' experience;
- Professional Engineer designation recognized by APEGGA;
- Experience in oil and gas, mining and utilities facilities projects engineering;
- A self starter with strong technical, interpersonal, teamwork, communication and organizational skills.

If you want to become part of our innovative and dynamic team please submit resumes in strict confidence to: careers@capitaleng.ca

Capital Engineering is an equal opportunity employer and we thank all applicants for submitting their resume; however, only those candidates considered for employment will be contacted.